How to comply with a statutory demand or have it set aside (ACT WITHIN 18 DAYS)

If you wish to avoid a bankruptcy petition being presented against you, you must pay the debt shown on page 1, details of which are set out on page 2 of this notice, with the period of 21 days after its service upon you.

Alternatively, you can attempt to come to a settlement with the creditor. To do this you should:

- Inform the individual (or one of the individuals) named in Part B above immediately, that you are willing and able to offer security for the debt to the creditor's satisfaction; or
- Inform the individual (or one of the individuals) named in Part B immediately that you are will and able to compound for the debt to the creditor's satisfaction.

If you dispute the demand in whole or in part you should:

- Contact the individual (or one of the individuals) named in Part B immediately.

If you consider that you have grounds to have this demand set aside or you do not quickly receive a satisfactory written reply from the individual named in Part B whom you have contacted, you should apply within 18 days from the date of service of this demand on you to the appropriate court shown in Part A above to have the demand set aside.

Any application to set aside the demand should be made within 18 days from the date of service upon you and be supported by a witness statement stating the grounds on which the demand be set aside. The forms may be obtained from the appropriate court when you attend to make the application.

REMEMBER! From the date of service on you of this document

- (a) you have only 18 days to apply to this court to have the demand set aside, and
- (b) you have only 21 days before the creditor may present a bankruptcy petition
